

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

Each and every day at Pines of Sarasota Foundation, hope sustains us.

We hope we can provide Pines of Sarasota with the means to continue its profoundly consequential work. We hope we can infuse our residents' home with beauty, light, and comfort, and their days with laughter and joy. We hope our mission will endure and that all Pines' residents will be able to stay in their home at Pines, even when their financial situation changes. We hope our community will continue to have faith in us and in our unwavering belief that medically vulnerable seniors deserve a home filled with dignity, compassion and love.

To our donors, I offer heartfelt thanks. You have answered our hope with generosity. Despite the unprecedented challenges of our times, your trust in us and commitment to us has not faltered. Through your steadfast support of Pines of Sarasota Foundation, you have given Pines' residents peace of mind. Our gratitude knows no bounds.

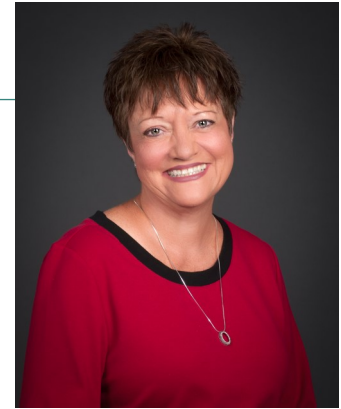

To everyone in our community, I offer these promises: Our faith in the power of compassion and love will never change. We will always embrace hope. And with your help, we will continue to make sure Pines of Sarasota can care for cherished seniors who outlive their financial resources.

Thank you for understanding that Pines of Sarasota is essential and for valuing our residents' lives and spirits. Thank you for helping Pines of Sarasota Foundation provide the support Pines' residents need.

To learn more about our mission and how you can help, call me at 941.955.6293 or email jginn@pinesfoundation.org.

Yours for a better community,
